

Alpine Flora of the Southern Rocky Mountains

Heuchera parvifolia Nutt. ex Torr. & A. Gray
Saxifragaceae

Det by: Harpo Faust

United States, New Mexico, Taos, Carson National Forest, Pecos Wilderness, Santa Fe Mountains, Divide Trail, UN-12828.

36.051133 -105.549501 +-5 meters [WGS 84]

Elev: 3891m.

East face of summit. Dark (iron rich?) sandstone scree on steep slope dominated and interrupted by by Senecio atratus and Trifolium attenuatum. Clear signs of herbivory on Rhodiola integrifolia and Penstemon whippleanus. Scattered, E, Boulderfield / Scree.

Joseph Kleinkopf 1241
with: Harpo Faust

22 July 2024

UNM Herbarium, Museum of Southwestern Biology